There are plenty of individuals that are promoting Clickbank products on Twitter, but a lot of them aren't doing it the only real way to earn cash on the internet. You may be sufficiently fortunate to get one sale when you have over 100,000 proponents on Twitter. They assume that they can spam their associate link and pray that folk would click it. Which suggests that you shouldn't link folks straight to the landing page.

As fast as the Clickbank product is live, start submitting your articles to directories and do lots of PPC advertising to spread the word there. While you wait for the PDF to be accepted by Clickbank, begin to write articles to push it. This could attract affiliates to your advertising letter and if they like what they see, they can promote it. The more that you repeat this model, the more cash you'll make from associates. With your Clickbank product, make sure you capture the emails of the affiliates. Let's admit it, affiliate links are repellent to take a look at. What will help though is to get a web site name for each affiliate product you promote. What that will allow you to do is popularize your web site name which looks much more pro and it'll mechanically take the user over to your associate link.
